

SAINT LOUIS ABBEY

Father Ambrose's Favorite Books

My favorite books (or at least books that have influenced me deeply):

John Henry Newman, Apologia Pro Vita Sua.

----, On the Development of Christian Doctrine.

----, Letter to the Duke of Norfolk.

Karl Adam, The Spirit of Catholicism.

Henri de Lubac, The Motherhood of the Church.

----, The Splendor of the Church.

----, The Christian Faith.

J. R. R. Tolkien, The Lord of the Rings.

----. "On Fairy Stories."

C. S. Lewis, Miracles.

----, Out of the Silent Planet.

----, Perelandra.

Ronald Knox, A Spiritual Aeneid.

----, Enthusiasm.

----, The Belief of Catholics.

----, Difficulties.

----, New Testament Commentary.

St. Augustine, Confessions.

----, City of God.

St. Francis de Sales, Introduction to the Devout Life.

T. S. Eliot, The Waste Land.

Copyright 2006 The Saint Louis Abbey

SAINT LOUIS ABBEY

----. "Tradition and the Individual Talent."

Margaret Mitchell, Gone With the Wind.

Robert Louis Stephenson, Treasure Island.

----, Kidnapped.

Miguel de Cervantes, Don Quixote.

Dante Alighieri, The Divine Comedy.

José Maria Gironella, The Cypresses Believe in God.

Thomas Hardy, Jude the Obscure.

Jane Austen, Sense and Sensibility.

----, Pride and Prejudice.

Anthony Trollope, The Warden.

Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, Memoirs.

Whittaker Chambers, Witness.

Gregory Dix, O.S.B., The Shape of the Liturgy.

Jean Danielou, The Bible and the Liturgy.

Philip Hughes, A Popular History of the Catholic Church.

----, A Popular History of the Reformation.

G. K. Chesterton, The Everlasting Man.

----. Orthodoxy.

Thomas Merton, The Seven-Storey Mountain.

----, Bread in the Wilderness.

Aelred Graham, The Christ of Catholicism.