

SAINT LOUIS ABBEY

Fr. Laurence on the 1st Saturday of Advent 2006

My brothers and sisters, we have come here this morning as sheep that have found a shepherd, the Lord Jesus who feeds us with himself. That food is the product of his sacrifice of himself to the Father which will be renewed among us. That food is the source of our healing, of our joy, and of our communion with one another in love. May we so allow him to shape us in his likeness that we can become ministers of his healing to other sheep without a shepherd.
